Let the good times roll!

Mrs. Stevenson and I were invited to watch Mrs. Cisneros and Mrs. Rod-Gon teach a very interactive STEM lesson this week. Students were able to mix and match different ingredients to create their very own "Witches Brew." It's great to see all our staff putting in the effort to provide these interactive learning experiences for our students.

Student engagement continues to increase at Castle Rock. If it isn't fun STEM lessons, its interactive chrome book use in the classroom. We also had some special visitors from the Woodlake Fire department come to our school this week to speak about a hot art contest for our 4th graders.

Announcements:

- * Nov. 1st : Mobile Dairy Classroom
- * Nov. 6th: Picture Retakes

3rd Grade students worked in teams to construct a pig pen for Wilbur. They have been reading about Wilbur in Charlotte's Web. Our 3rd graders have really been enjoying the story. It's been great visiting classrooms and seeing all the great things they are learning. What a great book!

This is your friendly neighborhood Principal Mr. Trevino. Until next time...
